

GOING, GOING, GONE — An old "workhorse" for the Albany Fire Department, a 500-gallon per minute, triple combination pumper purchased new in 1941, retires from service here but should be off fighting more fires for another city or sitting in some collector's garage soon. The city is currently accepting bids until 11 a.m. Nov. 15 at city hall for the truck which has been replaced by a larger, newer pumper

The pumper also pulled duty in parades as shown above driven by Captain John Hoeth who retired in 1973. Riding with him is the late John Vercelli, one time assistant fire chief who retired in 1961.

Albany council wants rail tracks in city

ALBANY — The Albany City Council has followed the example of the El Cerrito City Council and is asking the federal government to require the Santa Fe Railroad to continue serving its lone spur track in the city.

The council discussed the issue last week concluding that the track line should be served from the north (from Richmond switching yard) to the Hill Lumber Co., 1259 Brighton Ave. and be abandoned from there to the south city limit.

The El Cerrito decision last month paralleled the Albany one in that the council there voted to ask the Interstate Commerce

Community calendar planned

ALBANY — Plans are now underway to set up a community calendar, handled by the city clerk, which will be used to help avoid conflicts in special events sponsored by various local organizations.

According to Albany City Clerk Patricia Dempster, the calendar would operate as follows: Organizations who have important functions such as fund raisers, dances or dinners, would call the city clerk at 644-8523 and relay pertinent information. The city clerk will notify an organization if a function's date is in conflict with another group's plans for a major event.

A listing of the events will be published in the Times on a weekly basis.

Dempster noted that the need became especially apparent when a recent benefit sponsored by American Legion Post 292 of Albany was scheduled on the same date and time as an Albany Lions Club function. Many local residents are members of both organizations.

Service clubs, PTA's, Little League and the American Legion have already been informed of the plan to set up a community calendar. Residents knowing of any organization yet to be contacted should call the city clerk's office.

Council split 3-2 on Griffin recall

By NORMAN COLBY
I-G Staff Writer

ALBANY — The Albany City Council appears to be split 3-2 on the recall campaign against Vice Mayor Pat Griffin, with Councilman Mike Gleason calling it a "power play."

The council Monday night responded to a citizen's demand that council members take a stand, with Gleason, Mayor Joyce Jackson and Griffin opposing the recall effort.

Councilmen Lewis Howell and Robert Luoma both said, "Let the people decide," indicating they were not opposing a recall election.

Gleason's comments were the strongest, leading with his belief that the recall effort is "... an attempt to create a power play ... based on politics ... maneuvering the situation so certain people can gain power."

Gleason said he has differed with all members of the council including Griffin, but such problems are best dealt with at election time.

He added that there has been a trend in local city government against power plays, adding that malfeasance is the basis for recall and this is not justified in Griffin's case.

Mayor Jackson said she was "distressed" by the recall campaign, expressing her belief that Griffin, "... has carried on city business to the best of his ability and has kept to his faith as a council member."

She said she hopes the citizens will "investigate" the charges ... and "I am confident the council will be able to proceed with the city's regular business."

Mrs. Jackson recalled that she did not seek the removal from the council of former Councilman Hubert Call, even though he was charged with a felony (attempting to receive stolen jewelry) and she noted that

Call, "... used the council as a sounding board ... with none of us approving of that."

Griffin did not comment. Howell recalled that he had been a council member during the recall of another former council member, adding, "It is up to the citizens of the community to decide."

Howell said the people have a right to vote on the issue, but it is wrong for the City Council to take a stand. Luoma said, "Let the voters decide."

The council viewpoints were expressed in response to citizen Clyde Shumway's statement that, "The community has a right to know where each council person stands."

Citizen Dario Meniketti spoke from the audience, saying that the recall petitioners have not regu-

Gasoline for 27 cents

AFS visit to Colombia

ALBANY — For the past couple months Peter Wallmann has been reacquainting himself with bottles of Coca Cola that sell for 25 cents or more and premium gasoline that pumps out at a 60-plus cents a gallon clip.

The prices are a far cry from those he paid while staying two months with the Jaramillo family in Popayan, Colombia, as an American Field Service student. Gasoline there sells for 27 cents a gallon, coke for a nickel.

Wallmann, one of two Albany High School students who went abroad this year as part of the local AFS program, left June 18 for Popayan and returned two months later. The other AFS representative, Kathy Enos, is currently in Japan.

On the first four days of the trip to the Colombian city of about 100,000 Wallmann stopped two days in Miami, Fla., for an orientation program, then stayed two more days in Bogota, Col.

In Popayan, his new "family" included Arturo and Renee Jaramillo and their four sons, Freddy, 21, Alejandro, 17, Jorje, 13, and Guillermo, 12.

"I didn't speak Spanish very well, so I got into the habit of watching a lot," Wallmann said describing his first few days in Popayan.

In the weeks that followed he spent much time with his brothers at the "Club

Cub Scouts plan benefit breakfast

ALBANY — Cub Scout Pack 303, sponsored by American Legion Post 292 of Albany, will hold a pancake breakfast benefit 7 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Nov. 21 at the Cornell School cafeteria.

For $1, one adult or two children can eat a breakfast featuring pancakes, ham, juice, and milk or coffee. Syrup and "real" butter is included.

Tickets are currently being sold by cub scouts in their neighborhoods or may be purchased at the door.

The annual fund raiser supports the pack's activities during the year.

Knapp benefit slated

ALBANY — Another large turnout is expected for the "Frank Knapp Rehabilitation Fund Raising Night" scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 13, at Veterans Memorial Building, 1325 Portland Ave.

Proceeds from the dinner and dance will be given to American Legion Post 292 of Albany and its auxiliary for distribution to veterans rehabilitation programs.

No-host cocktails start at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 7:30 p.m. and dancing at 9 p.m. Music will be provided by Art Overman's Band till 1 a.m.

Tickets at $5.50 a person may be purchased by calling 526-2891, 526-4487, 525-1464 or 237-3427.

Termed "Albany's most successful annual social event," the fundraiser is named after the late Frank Knapp who initially hosted the event at his 1089 Club in Albany.

The fund raiser started several years when Knapp turned his nightclub over to the Legion during a Veterans Day holiday. The day's entire receipts were distributed to a rehabilitation fund for veterans.

The event grew in popularity and was moved to Veterans Memorial Building when Knapp's club could no longer hold the crowd it attracted. Last year more than 400 people attended.

Commission to reject the railroad's bid to abandon the track through the community, rather to allow it to abandon only that portion of the track south of El Cerrito Lumber Co., 10812 San Pablo Ave. to the south city limit.

Only one other customer is served on the north-south line which the railroad seeks to give up: Cooper Woodworking in Berkeley. It now appears that Cooper is being abandoned by the Berkeley city council. The city has been anxious for the tracks to be removed and the line abandoned.

In other actions, the council:

—Approved a proposal for a third year funding application for the housing conservation program. The grant request is for $147,000, for a total of $316,000 in three years.

—Approved a variance request from Tom Newton to construct a second story addition to his home at 922 Santa Fe Ave.

—Awarded a contract for four police department automobiles to the H. L. Moore Co., a Plymouth dealer, in Albany.

—Approved a request for $50 in revenue sharing funds for the Albany Tennis Club.

—Approved a request for $125 for the Veterans Day Commission for the annual parade in Hayward.

—Referred to staff a report on the 911 emergency telephone number in Alameda County. The special number is expected to be in operation by May, 1978, according to city officials.

Welfare rights

BERKELEY — Services offered by the Berkeley Welfare Rights Advocacy Center will be discussed at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Berkeley Women's Center, 2112 Channing Way.

Child care will be provided with 48 hours notice.

—Approved a 90-day agreement with the Chamber of Commerce to conduct a $3000 study on the effectiveness of the chamber's programs in Albany.

Pianist Haldeen set for concert

BERKELEY — Trinity Chamber Concerts will present pianist Alfred Haldeen in "Exploring Varieties of Unity and Contrast" on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Trinity Methodist Church, Dana at Durant.

Haldeen will perform Beethoven's Sonata No. 7 and the Twenty-Four Preludes of Chopin.

Admission to the Trinity concerts is free, although donations are welcomed.

Senior citizen news

Vet parade set in Hayward

HAYWARD — The Western States Regional Veterans Day Parade, which marched through Albany's streets last year, will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow in downtown Hayward.

Among the perennial participants will be the Color Guard of American Legion Post 292 of Albany.

The parade will start at Sunset and Mission Street, head south on Mission to D Street, then turn east on D to Main Street where it will proceed north on Main to Hazel.

Story correction

ALBANY — The Albany Parks and Recreation Department's after school programs at Vista, Cornell and Marin School playgrounds are free.

It was incorrectly reported last week that the programs cost $40 and $30 per month for the 2 to 5 p.m. and 3 to 5 p.m. sessions respectively. Those figures apply only to the Peter Pan Club.

The Proud and the Dejected — A Sermon on the Parable and the Publican — will be Father Debenham's message Sunday.
Father Debenham also will celebrate Holy Communion. He will be assisted by the Rev. Francis Sy. Nabeel, deacon; Nabeel, lay reader; Mary Jacob, lector; Brad Allen, hymn leader; and Jeff Hammond, acolytes; and Earl Collins and Earl Rogers, altar servers.
The senior choir will sing "O My Soul" and "O My Soul" after the offertory anthem, and Evelyn Bowie will host the coffee hour in parish hall after the 10 a.m. service. The adult discussion group meets in the Stauffer Room at 9 a.m.

First Baptist Church
"The Unchanging Christ" will be the message delivered by Pastor Larry Campbell at Sunday's 11 a.m. worship service at First Baptist Church, 1319 Solano Ave., Albany.
The chancel choir will sing two selections, and nursery care will be provided.
The evening service at 7 o'clock will include a time of singing and sharing in addition to a feature film, "Them Also," produced by Wycliffe Bible Translators. The film depicts the ministry of the organization.
Two youth groups will meet at 6 p.m. prior to the evening service.
Sunday school classes start at 9 a.m.
Berkeley Park Community Church
Dewey Coleman will again be guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service Sunday at Berkeley Park Community Church, Oak View Avenue and Colusa Circle, Kensington.
Visitors are welcome.
The 6:30 p.m. service will include a film for all ages.

Albany Christian Science Society
"Mortals and Immortals" will be the Bible lesson sermon at 11 a.m. Sunday at the Albany Christian Science Society Church, 1358 Marin Ave., Albany.
The sermon will conclude with the following statement from Mary Baker Eddy's Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures: "The admission to one's self that man is God's own likeness sets man free to master the infinite ideas."
The Christian Science Reading Room, located at the church, will be open 2 to 4 p.m. Nov. 16.
Gracepoint Baptist Church
Sunday's 11 a.m. service at Gracepoint Baptist Church, 1221 Marin Ave., Albany, will include a sermon by Pastor Bill Oeland entitled "The Wrath of God" and a choral selection by the church choir.
Sunday school classes for all ages start at 9:45 a.m. The adult class is currently studying "God's Expendables," Christians fulfilling their mission to the degree that they are willing to give of themselves and their means for Christ's sake.
The 6 p.m. service will be an hour of Christian sharing, singing and a message by Pastor Oeland on "Life, Real Life, Real Life at Last."

Albany Church of the Nazarene
Pastor Richard Roy will lead the 11 a.m. service Sunday at the Albany Church of the Nazarene, 850 Talbot Ave., Albany.
Sunday school classes for all ages begin at 9:45 a.m.
At the 7 p.m. service, Associate Pastor Lupe Torrez will deliver the message, "Who's Running This World?"

'Antigone' into 2nd week

KENSINGTON — "Antigone," a tragic-comedy by Jean Anouilh, goes into its second week of production with performances at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Squirrel Hill Theater, 1 Lawson Road.

Directed by Monica Parrish, the play stars Erika Propp as Antigone and William Gaus as Creon.
Anouilh's work blends "classical Greek drama with a modern sense of absurd humor." Creon, a new king, pursues a course he thinks will establish domestic peace. Antigone follows a "universal truth" and is compelled to action that will destroy peace.
Produced by special permission of Samuel French, Inc., the production also features Darlene Loran as

Alcoholism -- four-day probe with films, talks

BERKELEY — A four-day film festival on alcoholism will answer a multitude of questions about alcoholics and their families from 16 through 19 at Alta Bates Hospital.
Planned as part of Alcoholism Action Week, films will be shown in the hospital auditorium each day at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by questions from the audience and answers from the experts.
The film festival will open Nov. 16, with "Chalktalk," an introductory film which answers such basic questions as: "Who is an Alcoholic? What are the signs of alcoholism? How does alcohol affect our bodies? What are common misconceptions about alcohol and alcoholism?"
After the film, further questions will be answered by staff members of the CAREUNIT, the alcohol rehabilitation center at Alta Bates Hospital.

Wednesday's film will show the effects of alcohol on every major organ system in the body and the physical problems created by the abuse of alcohol. Dr. Jack D. Gordon, medical director of the CAREUNIT, and a pioneer in the Bay Area in the treatment of alcoholism, will answer questions from the audience.
"The Secret Love of Sandra Blaine on Thursday night will deal with alcoholism among women and depicts one woman's struggle to break free from the bottle. In the past 30 years, the number of women alcoholics has doubled and, since the CAREUNIT opened at Alta Bates, four of every ten patients have been women.
The "post-film" panel that night will include alcoholics and women who work extensively with women alcoholics.
The family of the alcoholic will be addressed on Friday and the film will outline eight guidelines for dealing with the alcoholic. It will point out that alcoholism is a family disease and that supportive organizations like A.A. and Al-Anon are vital recovery resources. Experts in the counseling of families of alcoholics will answer questions and discuss some of the issues.

The film festival will follow by one day the kickoff of Alcoholism Action Week by the National Council on Alcoholism of Alameda County.
The local group of NCA will open the week at 7 p.m. Nov. 15 with a symposium on "When Asked About Alcohol, What Do You Say?" at the First United Methodist Church, 2392 Broadway. Dr. Richard Cheatham, practicing psychologist and curriculum director of the Berkeley Center for Alcohol Studies at the Pacific School of Religion, will be the keynote speaker.
Following his talk, the NCA and the Drug Education Center will conduct three concurrent workshops on prevention, intervention, and treatment.
The CAREUNIT for the treatment of alcoholism opened at Alta Bates Hospital in January of this year. In its treatment process, alcoholism is approached as a treatable medical condition with a potential for high success in achieving and maintaining sobriety.

Y slates a Yule 'pantry'

BERKELEY — A "Holiday Pantry" providing handmade luxuries and essentials for holiday entertaining and celebrating opens at the Berkeley Community YWCA, 2134 Allston Way, at 6 p.m. tomorrow.
The "Pantry" will be open again 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday.
Booths will feature prisms, baked goods, plants and herbs, table decorations, place cards, note paper and wrappings, tree ornaments, candles, candles and stocking gifts. Refreshments will be sold at a coffee bar.
Proceeds will be used to aid "Y" services including Women's Refuge, Day Play, classes and special events.

Openings yet in Scrabble

OAKLAND — Contestants from Albany and the local area may still apply for the second annual Scrabble Tournament Sunday at 12:30 p.m. at Montclair Recreation Center, Moraga Road.
Sunday's match will be the last qualifying tournament. Albany resident Isabelle Betten has already qualified for the tournament final Nov. 21.
For registration contact Ann McGarragh at the Davis Tennis Stadium, 198 Oak Road, Piedmont.

Fumble key in Albany loss

SAN LEANDRO — A fumble deep in Albany territory in the second quarter helped pave the way for a San Leandro touchdown, the last scoring in the game, and a 12-7 loss for the Whitehats who now stand 1-6 in season play.

Coach Curt Phil, although praising the defense for another effort, noted that Albany had several scoring opportunities in the second half but couldn't capitalize on any of them.

The Whitehats close out the season Thursday at Piedmont.

ALBANY'S GREG WESTPHAL (22) ADDS TO YARDAGE WITH RUN local gridders caught nine aeriels for 140 yards against SL

Albany Cougars one game away

SAN LEANDRO — And then there was one — one game left on the Alameda County Athletic League schedule and if Albany wins Friday against Piedmont, the Cougars will have their first league title since 1957.

Albany set up the showdown with the Highlanders with a 12-0 blanking of San Leandro last Friday. Piedmont also won — 8-0 over Encinal — so both teams now stand 4-0 in ACAL play.

Cougar coach Phil Wanlin admits pleasure over the fact both teams are undefeated. "It comes down to winner take all — both teams winning tonight sets up the big game," said the coach.

Again Albany used its potent passing attack to score victory. Quarterback Andrei Wallace hit on 21 of 30 passes for 244 yards and two touchdowns. His season statistics are now 87 of 153 for 1,150 yards and 12 TDs.

Last night his favorite target was Greg Westphal, who caught nine aeriels for 140 yards and one touchdown. Westphal now has caught 32 for 491 yards.

The Cougars opened the scoring in the first period on a 72-yarder from Wallace to Westphal. "They came out with double coverage on Warren (deep threat Thomas) so Westphal caught the bomb," noted Wanlin.

"After that they went back into their basic 5-3 defense, but we said before the game that if they played that defense we could throw," continued the coach.

The Pirates' defense on Thomas was somewhat effective as he caught four for only 36 yards. His season stats now read 26 catches for 374 yards.

The Cougars' stout defense held San Leandro to only 72 yards.

Albany... 6 0 0-12
San Leandro... 0 0 0-0

Netters and gridders athletes of the week

ALBANY — It was tennis and football performers who turned in top notch efforts in league competition last week and went on to win Athlete of the Week Awards from the Albany Hi Boosters Club.

The tennis Doubles Team of Ilene Mishfue and Liz Tellefsen in an all-league competition won matches from Pacific, Encinal, Piedmont and San Leandro and finished second in the net play.

The Cougar Varsity Football team rolled on with a smashing win over Alameda, with Andrei Wallace having a record 140 passing.

The receivers making instant-replay catches on the defense being as strong as the offense, the Cougars had a host of players who played well enough to make this week's vote. Number 22 happened to be around at a lot of key situations, was the league receiver for the day, made an impossible catch between two defenders on a big touchdown. Greg Westphal. Athlete of the Week.

Past haunts Oaks Cards bowlers

ALBANY — Member of the Oaks Card Club team in the 915 Major League at Albany Bowl are hoping there is validity in the old bromide that says "history always repeats itself."

Last winter in the early weeks of the second half season the Card Clubbers followed their ascendancy into the league leadership with a prolonged losing streak that almost fell off the bottom rung of the standings ladder.

Last week they sared into first place once again, thanks to a 19-4 5/2 demolition of Team Five, and that's where they started worrying about the repetitive nature of history.

While Gordon Libby's 245-556 and Scotty Johnson's 245-556 series were major contributions to last week's victory, the Card Clubbers' rise to the top of the bottle also required the cooperation of the previous leaders, Merry Jax, who stumbled into a 21-4 debacle against Paco's Vagueres and tumbled all the way to fourth place.

The Majors' top individual performances came in a match that saw Curtis' Cowboys down Team Eleven 11-0. Bill Yokoyama had 256 game and 600 series for the Cowboys while Charley Taylor was rebutting with 580 in Eleven.

Nancy Wenger, who opened the season with 686 series and then went into a seven week decline, regained her form to lead the Majorettes with 590 series on games of 200-187-203.

The week's best scores came out of the 870 Commercial where Roland Enterprises continue to dominate the team standings. Les Riedlinger fired a fancy 636 series and Ralph Butler pressed him with 616. Butler included a 247 middle game in his production and Riedlinger opened with 240.

Tri City Men also got a fair share of strong performances with 202-197-199 for 598 by Carl Bingham, 590 by Chet Jordan and 577 by Bill Mimes.

Mike Massone led Adam and Eve with 583, and Gary Peters topped Morrison Red with an identical total.

In the 660 Scratch Jim Reynolds led with a steady 204-191 for 596, and Bill Johns chased him with 561. Loma Coleman was best for Nite Owls with 573 and Mel Kinard had 559 to pace Nevada Tahoe Tours.

Berkeley Elks had several in contention for top honors with Al Zehetmir the leader at 554. John Warameta had 550, Roger Ramsey 541 and Lou Catalano 536.

For Albany Travelers Gary Hansen was the leader with 224-570 while Patty Painter led the league's ladies with 557. Helen Olsen had 201-526 in the Ladies 630 Scratch, and Willa Harris posted 220 game in the course of her 332 in Ladies Handicap.

Dale Komai's first game was something a cat would have covered but he came back with 213 and 201 for 527 series to lead the Albany Eagles ahead of Don Dye's 520 and Rich Scott's 534.

Eddie Childress paced Pacific Stereo, putting most of his punch into a 221 third game for 541. Angelo Luchini drew the best line for Graphic Arts with 209 game to close out a 557 series, and Ed Noble's 550 edged Joe Blankenship's 546 for best among the Woodstackers.

Albany Judo Club has 10 in national meet

SAN FRANCISCO — Several members of the Albany YMCA Judo Club will be among some 350 competitors from 50 states vying for honors in the First National AAU Junior Championships Sunday at University of San Francisco Memorial Gymnasium.

The tournament is also the official qualifying meet for members of the 1976 USA Junior World Judo Team which will compete Dec. 15 to 19 in Barcelona, Spain.

Competition, which starts at 9:30 a.m., will be in Boys and Girls Junior, 14-17 years, and Young Men and Women, 18 to 20 years.

Representing Albany Judo Club are Ordio Borranco, 16, of Berkeley; Larry Grosse, 16, of Richmond; Curtis Chin, 16, of Eslingington; James Harland, 14, of Walnut Creek; Sano, 14, of El Cerrito; Oscar Guerrero, 14, of San Pablo; David Grosse, 14, of Richmond; Dan Augustino, 14, of Berkeley; Diane Bordnave, 17, of San Pablo; and Sharon Bockmeyer, 19, of Berkeley.

Bobcats win on big plays

ALBANY — Capitalizing on three big plays, Albany Bobcats last week drubbed San Carlos, 21-6 in a game that was marred by scoring among opposing players in the second half.

Albany scored on a 60-yard pass from quarterback Michael Dixon to Cecil Wright, added another 10 points on a 51-yard run by Gary Williams and iced the game on a 53-yard run by Williams on a fake play.

The Bobcats converted on two of three touchdowns, one on a 10-point kick by Tim Cason and the second on a 20-yard pass from Dixon to Michael Young.

San Carlos' score came on a one-yard plunge that ended a 62-yard drive.

Sea films shown

BERKELEY — Jacques Cousteau's "Tragedy of the Red Salmon" and a film "The Unsinkable Sea" will be shown at 11 a.m., 1 and 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at Berkeley's Lawrence Hall of Science.

"Merit Delivers More Taste Than Higher Tar Cigarettes."

—American Institute of Consumer Opinion

Extensive taste testing shows Merit delivers flavor of cigarettes having 60% more tar.

The bottom line was conclusive:
In a series of taste tests conducted for MERIT by the American Institute of Consumer Opinion,* smokers from across the country judged
MERIT to have more flavor than five leading low tar cigarette brands.
What's really startling
—and of major importance to all smokers—is that MERIT has less tar than these five brands.

Less tar. Yet more taste.
That's the report on a remarkable new taste process called 'Enriched Flavor.' A way to pack extra flavor into tobacco without the usual corresponding increase in tar.
You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough. Now smoke the cigarette. MERIT.
Unprecedented smoking pleasure at only 9 mg. tar.

POPAYAN TRIP

Popayan" a recreational and social hub of the South American community.

"During the day, the club caters mostly to youngsters and teenagers who use its swimming pool, ping pong and pool tables and other recreational facilities, including a grass soccer field," Wallmann said, adding, "At night adults use it mainly for dinners and night clubbing."

He added that his primary contact was with people who frequented the club which was used mostly by the "middle class" population of the city.

Wallmann found Colombia around Popayan a lush, green country which is proven by pictures he took during his stay.

"I got the impression that land there is cheap," Wallmann said. Cars in Colombia cost almost four times more than what Americans usually pay, but many families in Popayan owned two homes.

"The Jaramillo's home in the city was like a large apartment," he said, "but their home out in the country was a bit nicer. They were still fixing it up while I was there."

As for Popayan itself, Wallmann compared it to Stockton, Calif., but on a smaller scale. It serves as a center for distribution of produce from outlying areas.

"There are no supermarkets in the city like here," he added, noting, "There were mostly a lot of small shops with open markets for food."

"Peter got a lot out of it," said Wallmann's mother, Mary, a librarian at Albany High School. "You can't send a 16-year-old to a country where he doesn't know the language and the people and not expect him to mature from it."

Although his stay was with a family whose lifestyle may have been comparable to that of an American family, Wallmann did note general differences in the community.

"I did see poverty that can't compare with poverty in the United States," he explained. "In the rural areas some of the places had shacks that had no windows or doors. I saw farmers preparing mud for bricks and digging holes to set up an area for a house."

But, he added, "It's an old cliché, but I think it's true, especially with kids, that people are the same everywhere."

Wallmann, a senior, hopes to get a degree in forestry in college and later another degree in computer sciences. He is a member of AFS and its president. He also is a member of the Albany football team but hurt his leg early in the year and has been sidelined for the better part of the season.

Spaghetti benefit set for SSS Northland

BERKELEY — The Sea Scout Ship Northland of Berkeley will hold its 12th annual Spaghetti Dinner, Thursday, 6 to 7:30 p.m. at Northbrae Community Church, The Alameda and Los Angeles.

Donations for the dinner are $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. Reservations can be made by calling Joyce Sues 524-2965 or Barbara Nelson 525-0520 or tickets can be bought at the door.

Skinner Saugman will present slides of past cruises featuring the ship

Northland. Anyone interested in the Sea Scout program is invited to attend.

Talk set on money, acting

BERKELEY — The Jean Shelton Acting School at 2525 Eighth St., will present a seminar on "The Business of Acting" on Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Participants will include Ann Brenner, President of Brenner Agencies, Inc., San Francisco's largest motion picture and television agency; Wendy Phillips, former Jean Shelton student now appearing in CBS' Executive Suite; and Rob Nelson, a writer and director for Cine Manifest, the San Francisco film production collective.

Topics for the seminar will include everything a struggling actor wants to know about how to get a paying job acting — agents, pictures, resumes, auditions, unions and opportunities in Los Angeles and New York.

Headache

BERKELEY — A seminar on "Headaches — Current Concepts" will be held at noon today at Alta Bates Hospital.

Registration fee is $5 in advance, $6 at the door. For registration and further information, contact the Jean Shelton Acting School at 548-7677.

Notes of thanks

The family of Gillen D. (Nick) Howard of Madison Street, Albany, wishes to thank many friends and neighbors for their kind expression of sympathy at the death of their beloved husband, father and grandfather.

Mrs. Gillen D. Howard and Mrs. David A. Seely, Lisa, Brent and Cynthia Seely

I wish to thank the Albany Fire and Police Departments for their quick response on the emergency call at my home on 731 Talbot Avenue on Oct. 25, and the assistance they provided at that time.
